

Continuing the Fight for Farmworkers' Rights

Join us in celebrating Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta and their legacy of fighting for farmworkers' rights. Eduardo Chavez, grandson of Cesar Chavez, will be in a live chat talking about his documentary film, Hailing Cesar, and will be joined by student panelists from Santa Rosa Junior Colleges' (SRJC) High School Equivalency Program (HEP). For the past ten years at SRJC, HEP has been "serving, educating, and improving farmworker's quality of life through education" and these student panelists, current farmworkers, have been advocating for farmworker's rights in Sonoma county where they have faced precarious working and living conditions due to the fires and the pandemic.

Monday April 4th, 2022 4:30pm
Registration Required
Register Here!

Attendees will receive a link to access the film one week before the event.

The Sonoma County Junior College District does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic condition, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices; nor does the District discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in District programs and activities—including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, educational services and athletics and application for District employment.